

As Kentucky's largest history museum, the Frazier is a valued educational and cultural institution that has served over 1,300,000 guests since opening in 2004. Through interactive exhibits and programs, guests come face to face with people and events that have shaped our world.

Mission: Ignite the human spirit with thoughtfully crafted stories to spark curiosity about who we are and our connection to the future*

STORIES IN MIND

Stories in Mind is an outreach program that uses stories and objects from Kentucky history and the Frazier's collection as the starting point for creative exploration. Each session is led by a Stories in Mind facilitator from the Frazier with a focus of encouraging imaginative responses and socialization through an art, music, theater, or storytelling activity. This program is designed for residents in certified nursing and long-term care facilities.

- A facilitator from the Frazier History Museum will lead Stories in Mind for a group on location
- Each group session will last approximately 60 minutes
- Each session will include an art, music, or storytelling activity
- Consistency in scheduling up to three times per week each month
- Provided at no cost to facility – grant funded

Participants may benefit in the following ways:

- Reduced feelings of isolation and loneliness
- Increased creativity
- Increased sense of accomplishment

Requirements:

- Facility must be certified by Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS)
- Space to allow for group programming with up to 20 participants
- Primary staff contact at facility
- Participation in evaluation surveys and feedback to customize and improve ongoing programming

The Frazier History Museum does not discriminate against anyone applying for or receiving assistance or services based on race, religion, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, political beliefs or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity or any other protected class identified in federal, state or local laws.
